Aged Parent Shoots Down Man of Forty in Chicago Hotel.

CHASED FROM STREET

Fires Three Shots, Crying Reproaches, While Big Crowd Looks On.

VAIN APPEAL FOR AID

Says Son, Spending Money on Woman, Scorned His Pleading.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Charles Swan, a grocery salesman, was shot three times today in the presence of a great crowd by his aged father, who had chased him into the office of the Continental Hotel, Wabash avenue and Madison street. The men quarreled over a woman.

The younger Swan is fatally wounded. The father is locked up at Central Station.

A heated quarrel on the street outside the hotel was followed by the son's dash up the stairway, his father in close pursuit, with revolver in hand.

The old man cried out bitter reproaches as he ran. The father fired twice again as he stood over the son's body repeating his reproaches.

Swan is 60 years old and his son, who is a salesman for a large grocery firm, is 20 years younger. He was on his way to the Continental Hotel, one of his customers, when his father accosted him.

The older man has been out of employment recently. He told the police his request for aid made to his son had been refused with scorn and that the young man was giving his money to a woman.

200 LET OUT OF GOULD SHOPS

Reduction in Missouri Pacific Iron Mountain Mechanical Departments.

Railroad men are much interested in a series of reductions that have been made in the mechanical department of the Gould systems. About 200 men have been suspended at the shops at Chattanooga and Ewing avenues. L. Bartles, the master mechanic, says that about 20 of these men quit of their own accord, objecting to the shortening of the workday from 10 to 8 hours.

The reduction of working time is another change recently made.

At De Soto, Mo., a big reduction has been made in the shop forces. There were about 700 employees there, including those in the engine and car departments and the round house. Only about 200 remain.

A. A. Auck, says Official.

P. E. Mack, who is in the office of General Manager A. W. Sullivan, made this statement Thursday:

"The reduction in the mechanical occurrence. At this time, as a rule, the railroad complete the work of overhauling their rolling stock preparatory to the winter season. When this work is completed, naturally some men have to go. The reductions are probably exaggerated, inasmuch as many of them at De Soto and other places have been transferred to the general shops at Dallas and Baring Grove, near Little Rock. There has been no real reduction, but nothing out of the ordinary.

At the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain shops in St. Louis it is asserted that the reductions this year are greater than ever.

There is a report that the Goulds intend to inaugurate an "open shop" policy and the big reductions made recently are looked upon by some as a step toward the independent shop movement. In the general offices this "open shop" plan is discarded. Mr. Mack says he never heard of such a proposal. "The same policy is in force now that has been in force for years, and as far as we know no change is contemplated."

Among those who lost positions at the local plants are numbered twelve clerks in the accounting department.

ACQUITTED IN MINUTE.

Jury Makes Prompt Decision in Edward LeForest's Case.

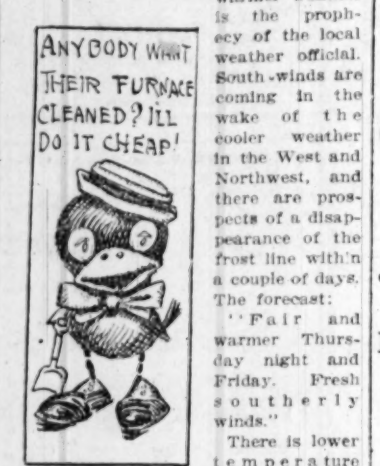

It took a jury in the Court of Criminal Correction Wednesday just one minute to find Edward LeForest, aged 22, not guilty of stealing 65 pounds of copper wire from the Union Electric Light and Power Co., on his defense that his foreman, John Blakely, had told him to take the wire to 414 North Eighth street.

He was having the wire weighed at a junk dealer's scales when arrested, Sept. 17, by Detective Elmer Williams. The foreman is a fugitive from justice, as he was charged jointly with LeForest, who said he did not know the wire was stolen. He had made no attempt to sell it, he said, but was going to deliver it, and only stopped to find out how heavy his burden was.

MEYER-MURMAN CASE ON TRIAL

Murman Swears Meyer Demanded His "Roll" at Pistol's Point.

WIFE HELPS HUSBAND

Mrs. Meyer Testifies That She Didn't See Either Revolver or Money.

Testimony is being taken today in the court of Justice Spaulding at Sixth and Chestnut streets to determine whether Stephen Meyer of 230 Finney avenue took the "roll" of Gustav Murman of 420 Cook avenue at the point of a revolver or whether Murman gave the money to Meyer without being coerced.

The money, it is stated, changed hands Sept. 13 at the home of Mrs. Ella Lowenstein, 2313 Fairfax avenue, when Meyer rushed in and held a pistol to her head.

Meyer testified that he saw Murman take the "roll" from the pocket of his coat and that he saw Meyer take the money to his own pocket.

Murman, who was nattily dressed, was the first witness against Meyer, whom he charges with highway robbery. He said the night before Meyer had made accusations to him, and he had agreed to confront Mr. and Mrs. Meyer the next morning.

He went to the Meyer home and found that Mrs. Meyer had gone to Mrs. Lowenstein's. He went there. They were sitting on the sofa talking it over when Meyer rushed in and held a pistol to his head and said: "You give me that roll."

Murman explained that Meyer knew he carried a "roll" because he had often cashed checks for him.

He said he saw Meyer take the roll, which contained between $150 and $180, to save his own life.

Meyer then ran out of the house. Murman said, and fired two shots in the back yard.

Policeman Cosgrove, who arrested Meyer, told of his throwing down the roll at the police station and saying it was Murman's money.

Mrs. Meyer, who then took the stand, was attractive in a black suit and a black turban with white feathers. She was sworn to telling where the roll was hidden to Meyer, but she said it was in Pittsburg four years ago.

She said Murman, the morning that Meyer found them, Mrs. Lowenstein, was trying to persuade her to leave town, and had also offered her the use of a flat on Grand avenue.

She admitted that Meyer when he came in said to Murman, "You've got to square it with me," but denied that she saw any revolver or money. She said the men left the room hastily by different doors.

Mrs. Lowenstein said she was in the kitchen and Mrs. Meyer and Murman were in the front room talking when Meyer rushed through the kitchen and into the front room. She did not see a revolver and did not see money change hands.

An adjournment was taken at noon to 1:30 o'clock.

BROOKS CASES DROPPED.

Lack of Witnesses Stop "Get-Rich-Quick" Prosecution.

Because the could not get service on certain witnesses the circuit attorney Wednesday afternoon entered nolle prosequi in the cases against Charles H. Brooks, charged with larceny in connection with a "get rich quick" investment company.

The absence of D. E. Karr and George Taylor of New Moore, Va., the witnesses in whose name the prosecution was brought, compelled this action.

Brooks is charged with the appropriation of $50,000 entrusted to his company by the men named for witnesses. Further he said that the cases against J. M. Bussey and E. W. Scott jointly indicted with Brooks would be continued generally. These two men have never been apprehended.

FOLK DEFERS ACTION ON INSURANCE

Commissioner Vandiver's Proposed Proceedings Delayed for Consideration.

JUDSON, CROW, SEE HIM

Legislative Agents in Anteroom, One From Insurance Company.

PROSECUTE BUCKETSHOPS

Governor Will See Stewart on This, Also Socialists and Sergt. Straughan.

Gov. Folk and W. D. Vandiver, state superintendent of insurance, conferred at the Planters' Hotel Thursday with Frederick N. Judson and Edward C. Crow, attorneys for the New York Life Insurance Company, regarding Vandiver's proposed intention to exclude the company from business in Missouri unless it shall elect new officers and return to its policy holders all the money spent for political purposes.

Mr. Judson at the conclusion of the conference said to a Post-Dispatch reporter that he had had "a very pleasant interview" with the Governor and Mr. Vandiver, and anticipated no immediate action on the part of the State against the New York Life Insurance Co.

No Action Yet.

Superintendent Vandiver said: "No action will be taken at this time against the New York Life Co."

"When I served the original notice upon them I agreed to give the company 30 days in which to make reply."

In the downstairs corridor, while the conference was in progress upstairs, were Col. W. H. Phelps and Chris Ellice, the latter representative of several life insurance companies at recent sessions of the Missouri Legislature.

Mr. Ellice was seen speaking with Mr. Judson in an interview with Mr. Vandiver, which was granted.

It is recalled that in the course of the inquiry into corruption in the Missouri Legislature two years ago Gov. Folk, then Circuit Attorney of St. Louis, ascertained that inside of 10 years the fire and life insurance companies had spent a total of $200,000 to influence legislation in their behalf and to prevent adverse legislation.

Insurance for Hearings.

The insurance representatives insisted that they had been "sandbagged" by corrupt lawmakers. The offenses which Gov. Folk unearthed were barred by the statute of limitations, hence no criminal prosecutions were instituted.

The insurance representatives insisted that they had been "sandbagged" by corrupt lawmakers. The offenses which Gov. Folk unearthed were barred by the statute of limitations, hence no criminal prosecutions were instituted.

They submitted, apart from all other considerations, and even conceding for the moment that you have the power under the statute to take such action, that it should not be taken without giving the parties interested a chance to be heard.

Mr. Judson also asserted that he had "no less authority than the chairman of the investigating committee of the State of New York, that this action of yours is directly destructive of the purpose of that investigation."

To See Stewart.

Gov. Folk informed a Post-Dispatch reporter Thursday that he would take up with President Stewart of the Board of Police Commissioners the question of closing the St. Louis bucketshops; also the case of Sergt. George Straughan, who surrendered his shield to the Board a few days ago on the ground that Chief Kiehl had made an unwarranted light on him, and the controversy relative to the right of the Socialists to conduct public meetings on the streets of St. Louis.

"Will you direct President Stewart to close the bucketshops?"

"I can merely say that matter will claim our earnest consideration," replied the Governor.

Gov. Folk held a short conference during the morning with A. C. Maroney, chairman of the Election Commission. It has been freely rumored that Mr. Maroney would be the next leader of the St. Louis Democracy. If not Mr. Maroney, then Excelsior Commissioner, Thomas E. Mulvihill.

A. A. Stewart, president of the Police Board, said to a Post-Dispatch reporter Thursday that he had an appointment with Governor Folk and did not expect to call on him.

"I am very busy," said Mr. Stewart, "and the Governor is probably busy himself. I know of no reason why I should call on him."

"The Police Department has done all it can in the 'bucketshop' cases. We have investigated and furnished evidence to the grand jury. We can do no more than that."

In regard to the Socialists' proposition, Governor Folk called me in by long delay and asked me to send him the law on the question. He had no comment.

MAN'S SEVERED BODY FOUND IN SUIT CASE

Thomas Corcoran's Head Found in New York Street Reveals Murder.

VICTIM IS "I" EMPLOYEE

Frederick Bauer, Occupant of Room, Arrested—Neighbor Heard Shot.

POLICE MAKE AN ARREST

Take Fred Bauer in Custody Trunk in Clothes Hamper.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The finding of a man's head in Eighteenth street near Avenue C, early today, resulted in the discovery of an unusually revolting murder, the victim of which was Thomas F. Corcoran. Corcoran was killed possibly last night in the house, No. 149 Third avenue.

After the picking up of the head the other portions of the body were found cut to pieces in the Third avenue house.

The arms below the elbows and legs below the knees had been packed in a suit-case and the torso and remaining portions of the arms and legs were hidden in a clothes hamper in a room occupied by Frederick Bauer, an elevator runner. Bauer was arrested.

The point at which the head was found is more than a quarter of a mile away from 149 Third avenue. The head was wrapped in the Sunday supplement of a German newspaper and a blue and white shirt.

The murder was discovered through a story told by George Lanole, who had a room adjoining Bauer's and who rushed into a police station today saying that he had lain awake for hours listening to noises which he thought proceeded from Bauer's room. He said that late last night he heard at least two men quarreling in the adjoining room. He heard a shot and the sound of someone falling to the floor. Then he went to sleep.

About 2:30 this morning Lanole said he was awakened by noise. One a soldier, Bauer fell asleep while these men talked, he said, and when he awoke the soldier was gone, leaving the other's shoes and a revolver on the floor. He said that he had seen the soldier's arm of his undergarment and the right arm of an outer shirt were covered with blood. A badly nicked razor was found on top of the trunk in Bauer's room and a revolver with one chamber empty was also found in the room.

Bauer, who is 23 years old, is employed as an elevator man at the Union Square Hotel, and when he was sent home because of extreme nervousness.

Corcoran's head showed that he had been shot in the face.

The police make the allegation that it was a crime of degeneracy. Corcoran came here from Highland Park, Ill., and made his home in this city with a married sister. He was a ticket chopper on the elevated railroad.

COURT LETS GIRL GIVE UP MOTHER

Judge Douglas of Circuit Court decided Thursday that the aunt and not the mother should have custody of Lillian Uriel, aged 16, for whose possession the mother, Mrs. Martha Uriel, 1230 Chouteau avenue, had brought habeas corpus proceedings. The court held that the girl was old enough to decide for herself and that if she wishes to live with Mrs. Kunigunde Uriel, of 2861 South Jefferson avenue, where she has made her home for several years, she may do so.

The girl on the stand testified in behalf of her aunt's claims. She said she no longer had any affection for her mother, since the latter dragged her through the streets a week ago to compel her to live with her. She was unexpressedly humiliated by being taken from her aunt's home by her mother and a strange man, she said, and by a scene which occurred on a street car when she appealed to a policeman.

Mother's Story.

The aunt said that taking the child away from her home now would kill Emil Uriel, the girl's grandfather. He is extremely fond of her. He is 80 years old and was unable to offer any resistance when Mrs. Uriel came to the house to get her daughter. Mrs. Uriel, the mother, said that she had been compelled to place Lillian in charge of her aunt in 1898 when her husband was demolished by a cyclone. She was earning small wages as a stenographer, she said, and could not care for the girl, in addition to herself and a mother.

The mother declared that the aunt had wanted the girl's affection away, but said she could win it back if given an opportunity. She does not think her

REAGEN BELIEVES KIDNAPED CHILD IS NURSE'S OWN

Alton Man, From Whose Home Child Was Stolen, Thinks Goldie Yell Is Its Mother, and That She and His Wife Made Compact to Deceive Him.

SAYS BABY LOOKS LIKE GOLDIE YELL

Union Station Ticket Agents Identify Her From Photograph as Woman Carrying Boy Who Left on Monday Midnight Train After Calling Twice at Their Windows.

George Reagen declared to a Post-Dispatch correspondent in Coshocton, O., Thursday that he was convinced that 2-year-old George Howard Reagen, kidnaped from Reagen's Alton home by his nurse, Goldie Yell, is the son of Miss Yell, not of himself and his wife. He says he has noted a striking resemblance of the child to its nurse, and this caused him to remember that he did not see the baby until five minutes after his birth, and to question his wife, who maintained, though in a confused manner, that the child was her own.

He now believes the story, told through the Post-Dispatch by Miss Yell's mother, of the strange compact between his wife and the unwedded mother, by which he was deceived into thinking the child his own. He loves the child, he says, so much that he wishes to recover him regardless of his parentage.

Post-Dispatch reporters ascertained positively Thursday that Miss Yell went with the child from St. Louis to Chicago, where she could take a through train for her home in Cloquet, Minn.

Mrs. Reagen, when seen by a Post-Dispatch reporter Thursday at her home in Alton, reiterated her statement that she was the mother of the kidnaped boy. At that time she had not been informed of her husband's statement that he was convinced the child was not their own.

REAGEN NOT AT CHILD'S BIRTH.

COSHOCTON, O., Oct. 12.—George Reagen, husband of Mrs. Reagen, made this signed statement to the Post-Dispatch correspondent today in answer to questions:

"I have known Goldie Yell about five months, first meeting her here in Coshocton the latter part of last April, when she came to visit my wife. George was ten 15 months old.

"She was first employed in my family by my wife in September, 1903, at East St. Louis, Ill. My wife was on her way from Alton to Greenville, Ill., to her sister's. She was taken sick at East St. Louis and told me that her child was born there and she was lucky enough to get Goldie Yell as a nurse. Neither she nor I ever knew Goldie Yell before, so far as I know.

"Miss Yell was with my wife during that period, and not again till she visited us last April, and was here two weeks. When here she was not in my employ, although I forwarded her transportation to some place in Wisconsin.

"I was not present at the baby's birth, and he was about five weeks old when I first saw him, my wife bringing him to Newark, where I was working.

CHILD LOOKS LIKE GOLDIE.

"I had not seen my wife for one week before the baby came. Your statement that Goldie Yell's mother says the child is not mine is the first statement that has ever been made to me, but I have believed that to be the case since I first saw Goldie Yell here last April.

"In fact, I mentioned to a close friend yesterday, U has been firmly fixed in my mind since the news of the kidnaping first came to me and has burned its way in until I have thought of nothing else.

"The child has the long black eyelashes of Goldie Yell and resembles her closely in other ways, although the little fellow does look much like me and was growing to look more like me. He also resembles my wife but not as strongly as he does Goldie Yell.

"I never heard of Leo Rowe, who Goldie's mother says went with her when she left home five years ago, although he may be the same O. A. Hineman who telegraphed Goldie when she was here.

"I am attached to the baby as strongly as though he were my flesh and blood, and will take him for my own if I can adopt him.

REAGEN ACCUSED WIFE.

Last summer after Goldie had left, I stated bluntly to my wife that I thought it was Goldie's child and not hers, and that she had worked a game on me. It angered her and every once in a while afterwards she referred to it and seemed anxious to know why I could imagine such a thing. It stuck to me and the contention of Miss Yell's mother fixes it all the more firmly in my mind.

"The girl's idea in kidnaping the child is plain. It is her own child and a mother is entitled to her own child. My wife loves the baby and so do I, and if I can find him again I will gladly adopt him.

"I have not the heart to say it, but I feel that what she says is true. If the Post-Dispatch can find Goldie Yell or the child, please ask the paper to try and arrange for a meeting and I will come on and try to legally adopt the lad as my son.

Mrs. George Reagen, when seen at her home in Alton Thursday by a Post-Dispatch woman reporter, reiterated the statement that she was the mother of the kidnaped boy, and told a circumstantial story of the child's birth in East St. Louis, declaring that her husband was with her at the time. She had not been informed of her husband's statement that he believed Goldie Yell to be the child's mother, and that he did not see the baby until it was 5 months old. The conflict between the statements of husband and wife regarding the husband's presence at the time of the child's birth can only be explained by the conflicting statements as to the child's parentage.

Tells of Child's Birth.

She was at her home on Third street, near Apple, Alton. Her eyelids were swollen from tears, but she was hopeful of recovering her child. Her home is pleasant and fresh flowers were in the parlor vases.

Mrs. Reagen lay on a bed from which she could see the little white bed of her child, and interrupted her conversation even often to speak of his precocious ways and to say that she could hear him crying for her. Once she cried bitterly.

"My husband and I were on our way to Greenville, Ill., Sept. 17, 1903, said she. "I had not been well for several months and had been under the treatment of Dr. Lemon of Alton. I was going to the home of my sister, Mrs. J. W. McKinney of Greenville, so that I could have her care.

Met Nurse in Depot.

"It was necessary for me to change cars at the Relay Depot, East St. Louis. I became quite ill there and went into the ladies' waiting room. It was in the afternoon. As I sat there a young woman came in and two were a nurse's dress.

"She said to me: 'Are you ill?' I replied that I was and told her that I was going to Greenville.

"She said: 'You are too ill to travel; I am a nurse and I can judge.'

"We talked for some time and she said: 'I have a room on Missouri avenue where I live when I am not on duty. You can go there with me if you will and I will take care of you.'

"You may know how glad I felt to have somewhere to go. I told my husband and we went home with her.

"I do not remember the house very well, only that the room was on the second floor of a building in which bicycles were repaired. It was on the left

Three Negroes, Brought to Port in Irons, Held for Tragedy.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 12.—Capt. Rumill and four of his crew of the four-masted schooner Harry A. Berwind, are reported killed in a mutiny while the vessel was bound from Mobile to Philadelphia.

The schooner Blanche H. King, Capt. J. W. Taylor, bound from Brunswick, Ga., to Philadelphia, put in Southport yesterday afternoon, bringing in iron three negroes, all that remained of the crew of the Berwind.

The captain, mate, cook and an engineer, who did hoisting work aboard the latter vessel, apparently had been killed in the mutiny, and their bodies thrown overboard, and the body of the fourth sailor was found lying on deck, where he, too, had been killed.

The Berwind being from a territory against which Southport is quarantined for yellow fever, the three negroes taken from her are held at quarantine until arrangements can be made for their detention by the Federal authorities.

COULDN'T FIND FIRE.

There Was Smoke, Though, and the Department Traced It.

For an hour early Thursday morning Oscar Burke, proprietor of a small rooming house at 208 Olive street, looked for a fire, which smoke indicated was in a room on the second floor. The fire no one could locate. There were no persons in the house. At 2 a. m. Mrs. Clara Burke and her daughter, Eva, were awakened by the smoke. There is a grate in this room and early in the evening there had been a fire in it, but the fire was out. Oscar Burke was awakened and the three persons tried to find the fire. Finally Burke went out and told a policeman. The policeman viewed the situation and called the fire department. The defective condition of the grate caused the fire. The smoke emanated from a smoldering fire that had started in the flooring under the fireplace. It was extinguished and the loss is not more than $15.

When the fire department arrived the clanging of the bell and yells, of the firemen caused the smoke to rise in the house, and the roomers, with a single exception, dressed themselves and watched the fire. Miss Grace Jones, a waitress at 206 Olive street, was sleeping on the same floor when the fire was discovered, but she didn't know that fire was threatening the building. She slept soundly until 7 a. m.

AUTOPSY ON CAT.

Man Who Gave Body to Medical School
Had Rare Pancreatic Disease.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—What is regarded as a wonderful discovery by the medical profession was made at an autopsy performed on the body of George William Catt, whose body, in accordance with his will, was taken to the dissecting room of the Cornell and Bellevue Hospital medical schools, to be dissected to benefit medical and surgical research. The pancreas, which performs the same functions as the gall, supplying the smaller intestine with gastric juices to aid digestion, was found to be diseased in a condition which had probably prevailed for many months. It was found to have withered away to almost nothing and the surgeons who were present at the autopsy declare there is no other known case of a man living with a withered pancreas. All the diseases for which Mr. Catt had been receiving treatment were found to have existed. Physicians declare the pancreas one of the most important delicate organs of the body. The coffin in which the body was borne to the medical college on Tuesday was destroyed by the undertakers. All the flowers on top of the coffin were distributed among the patients in Bellevue Hospital.

"The baby came the next day. My husband and the nurse were the only ones with me. No physician was present."

"When the baby was five days old I wrapped it in a pair of blankets that we had with us and my husband and I started to Greenville. The nurse had been so kind to us that I wrote to her afterwards, addressing her as Mrs. William Anstedt, East St. Louis, and our correspondence continued."

"In the course of our correspondence the nurse gave me her name as Miss Goldie Yell. I did not question her reason for having two names."

"When she wrote she usually sent some word to him. She would write, 'Kiss the baby for me,' and often said that she liked him better than any child she had ever cared for."

"She did not tell me that she had been married. I did not ask her about her affairs, permitting her to tell me what she would."

"She visited us last year in Coshocton, O., where my husband was working. She often spoke of the beautiful shape of my baby's head and took great interest in him."

"The dispatches quite my husband as being that he expected her to kidnap the child. He means by that that her fondness for the child was great."

Telephone Courtship.

"During the time she was in Coshocton she received many letters and long distance telephone calls. Scarcely a day went by without the latter. She said they were from a man whose name was Heinemann, that she lived in Wisconsin and that he was crazy to marry her."

"We own this house in Alton, but it has been our custom to go to Coshocton some time each year."

"Her mother came to the World's Fair from their home in Cloquet, Minn. She spent some time in St. Louis and because of my friendship for the nurse I invited her to come to see me. She in turn invited me to St. Louis."

"My child's illness prevented me from accepting her invitation and she did not come. She is now so that we did not see each other."

"She must be a strange mother, however, to say what she has said about her daughter. The dispatches say that Goldie was the mother of a child four years ago. She can't pass my boy off for a yearling if he is large."

"I was ill last March, and because Goldie had cared for me so well we sent for her again. Another baby came, but it died when it was only a few hours old. She stayed with us a short time and renewed her friendship with my boy."

"When my husband made ready to go to Coshocton this fall we decided that I should stay in Alton with the boy in order that he could have the comforts of home life. It is not easy to board when one has a child."

"Some say that my husband and I were separated. We were in one sense. He is in Coshocton and I am here, but we understand that it was to be so for the child's sake."

"Some time we did have little spats, but no serious disagreements. I shall not give up believing in my husband until everything is gone. True, he has sent no word to me as yet, but I can be reasonable that I do not know."

"He did not want to leave me alone in the house, so one of our rooms was given to Mr. Patrick Laffey, a friend of my husband's, and a note was sent to Goldie, asking her to come and spend the winter with us. It was understood that she should have employment through the day and live in my house."

"She was to come earlier in September, but she did not reach Alton until last Friday."

"I was glad to see her. She said she would do some sewing for me before she went to work and I rented a sewing machine."

"Had occasion to go into her room Saturday night. My boy was sleeping in there. She was up and dressed, although it was near midnight. She said that she could not sleep because of mosquitoes. I did not suspect anything."

"She spoke so highly of 'Wife in Name Only' that I made up a party order that he could have the comforts of home life. It is not easy to board when one has a child."

ANOTHER CLOSED DOOR

It is announced that the Grade Crossing Commission will hold secret sessions in the mayor's office.

father thought there was no one like him. He couldn't talk much, but he sang 'Good-by, Little Boy'."

"Mrs. Dougherty of 514 Missouri avenue, East St. Louis, told a Post-Dispatch reporter Thursday that she did not remember Mrs. Reagen or the nurse."

"Monday I went to Horseshoe Lake, several miles north of Granite City, to attend the funeral of my friend, Peter Stemmer. I think it was about 10:30 o'clock when I boarded the trolley car en route to my home in East St. Louis. The car had come from Alton. There were only three or four men, two of them in street car uniform, and the girl on the car. She sat in the second seat from the rear end and I was across the aisle. The girl turned her head and bowed when I entered the car, but did not speak to me. I saw that she held a big baby boy in her arms, but could not see his face, which was covered with a brown veil."

ed with me thoroughly convinced me that the girl was engaged in wrong doing and was not telling me the truth. I was almost on the point of calling for the police and have them investigate her story, and I regret now that I did not."

Charles Anstedt of 604 Missouri avenue is the only person of that name living near the house where Mrs. Reagen says her child was born in the room of Goldie Yell, whom she then knew as Mrs. Anstedt. Anstedt says he knows nothing of the birth, does not know Miss Yell and has no relative who is a nurse."

Sold Her Chicago Ticket.

Henry Brunjes, John Fitzgerald and E. G. Irwin, ticket sellers at Union Station, said Thursday that Goldie Yell, whom they identified by photographs, bought a ticket for Chicago Monday night, and left over the Chicago & Alton at 11:30 p. m.

"I was at my window," says Brunjes, "when about 11:15, the woman whom I identify as Goldie Yell entered the waiting room. She carried a boy about 2 years old. With her was a man, shabbily dressed and with about four days' growth of beard. He carried a go-cart."

"The woman came to my window, inquired the price of and bought a ticket over the Wabash to Chicago. The man said something in the nature of a protest; the woman answered that the Wabash depot in Chicago was close to where she wanted to go there."

"Then she, the baby and the man left the waiting room."

"About 11:35, after I had closed my window, the woman hurriedly returned. 'She told Irwin, the night man, that she had become confused and missed her train; that she had put her baby on the Chicago & Alton train which left at 11:30, and that the Wabash ticket be exchanged for a Chicago & Alton ticket.'

"Irwin called me and I made the exchange. Then she left hurriedly for the midway. She bought only one ticket; the man evidently did not go with her, though I did not see him again."

Fitzgerald and Irwin substantiate Brunjes' statement.

The Chicago & Alton trains stop at Union Depot in Chicago, reaching there at 8:16 a. m. At 9 a. m. from the same depot a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul leaves for St. Paul, arriving there at 9 p. m. If, as the woman hinted during her trolley car trip from Alton to St. Louis Monday night, she wanted to go to St. Paul, she could easily have made connection."

The three men at the ticket window say they believe her statement, that the Wabash train took her closer to where she wanted to go in Chicago, was based on a belief that the Wabash went into Union Depot instead of into the Polk street station at Dearborn street, some distance away."

Talked With Nurse.

Mrs. Alice Miller of 432 Sixth street, East St. Louis, had a long talk with Goldie Yell while the girl was making her escape from Alton Monday night. Mrs. Miller rode with her to Coshocton, Ohio, and the Alton-Venice and Stockyard trolley cars.

"Her strange actions attracted my attention as soon as I saw her, and after observing the girl closely I began to suspect that something was wrong with her."

"A long conversation which she started with me convinced me that she was not the only medicine you need to cure Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Bilelessness, Femal's Ills, or Malaria. Try it today."

Dental Candidates Seeking Licenses Display Knowledge
in Missouri Pen.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 12.—The members of the State Board of Dental Examiners are at the Penitentiary today with a class of 25 applicants for license to practice dentistry in this state. The applicants have been here several days and have undergone the rather severe theoretical and practical examination by the board and their mission at the prison today is to complete their examination by practical demonstration. All of 200 and odd convicts in that institution dental service is free today.

While it might appear on the face of things that it would be rather hard upon the convicts to be the victims of two dozen budding young teeth carpenters, it is entirely optional with the prisoners. Many who stand in need of the services of a dentist are only too glad of the opportunity of volunteers. All of the material for filling teeth is furnished by the board or the applicant, so it costs the prisoner nothing whatsoever."

All manner of dental work is being exemplified today, for all kinds and conditions of cases are to be found among 200 prisoners who have neither the opportunity nor the means to have teeth attended to properly."

After today's clinic is completed the board will pass finally upon the applicants. One woman, Mrs. A. Schooley, of Kansas City, is among the applicants.

DOUGHERTY SUED HERE.

Attachment Suit Against Real Estate of Peoria Man.

An attachment suit was begun in the St. Louis Circuit Court Thursday morning against Newton C. Dougherty, who was secretary of the Peoria Board of School Inspectors and has been indicted on 20 or more counts because of discrepancies in his accounts with the board.

The suit was brought here because Dougherty owns real estate in St. Louis. The property consists of a place of ground near the "new" Loess wave, and Eleventh street, not more than 100 feet from the river, and the buildings and lot 1117-19 Pine street.

The suit was filed by Nagel & Kirby, attorneys for the Peoria Board of School Inspectors. It is charged in the application for attachment that Dougherty has been guilty of fraudulent entries in his books, and forgeries of school certificates, $200,000 and judgment for this amount is asked for.

Several Peoria lawyers are in the city and will appear with Nagel & Kirby when the case is tried.

FOR SHOOTING ON CAR.

The trial of Beverly Brown charged with assault to kill, began Thursday before Judge Reynolds of Criminal Court. It is alleged that at midnight of Aug. 16, Brown and some companions started trouble on the corner of Broadway and Olive streets, because of the presence of negroes on the car.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestine and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other vegetables. It improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon result in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

HIS SPECIALTY.

From the Detroit Free Press.

"Really," said his friend.

"Well, I should say so. He's so afraid some one will get a string on him that he even sends wireless telegrams!"

Kentucky Colonel, Declining Nomination
Because Dumb, Changes Mind.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Oct. 12.—Col. J. M. Holmes, Union veteran of the Civil War, will make the race for Mayor of Owensboro on the Prohibition ticket because he believes he has been directed to do so by divine power. He was undecided the nomination, but on account of not having been able to speak a word for more than three years, he was in his room writing a letter to the Executive Committee of the party, declining the nomination.

A friend came in the room and spoke to him and he answered in a clear and distinct voice. Col. Holmes believes this was an act of God to enable him to make the fight, and says that he dare not offend God by declining the nomination. He has issued a challenge to the other candidates to meet him on the stump.

FINED FOR USING MAIL.

Kansas Woman Who Got Money From Wife-Seeker Sentenced.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Oct. 12.—Mrs. Cora Johns of Junction City pleaded guilty in the United States Court to a charge of using the mails to defraud in connection with answering the advertisement of a man who wanted a wife. She was fined $50 and sentenced to one day in jail.

Mrs. Johns is the wife of Oscar Johns, a young farmer living near Junction City, and is the mother of three small children. Last June she answered the advertisement of John Schlottbach of Ellis, Kan., who wanted a wife. Mrs. Johns was carrying on the correspondence in the name of Glennie Vaindorn, and when Schlottbach proposed marriage, Mrs. Johns wrote that she needed $5 with which to buy her trousseau and railroad ticket. The money came by return mail, but that was the last Schlottbach ever heard of Glennie Vaindorn until the authorities found her.

STOCKINGS DANGEROUS.

That Is, the Openwork Kind Are, Says W. C. T. U. President.

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—"The openwork stocking is full of danger to the youth of our land," declared Mrs. Katharine Stevenson, State President of the Massachusetts Women's Christian Temperance at the thirty-second annual convention, which is in session at Cambridge.

Mrs. Stevenson was making the annual address, when she attacked openwork stockings, deprecating dress and their dire consequences.

"Our purity crusade," she said, "will be directed against the dangers of 'modest' dressing. Openwork has its place, but that place is not in public and it is seen altogether too frequently out of place."

"When we remember who sets the fashion to all the world we may well question if an insidious purpose, deadly to the highest womanhood, may not run through the steadily growing tendency to immodest, unnecessary display of a woman's person."

TUMBLER TUMBLESON.

College Girl Smashed Platter on Head of Annoying Football Player.

SIOUX CITY, Io., Oct. 12.—Seizing a big platter at her elbow, Miss Kiste Stevens, a dignified and handsome young woman student of Morningside College, smashed it over the head of Arthur Tumbleson, a football player and prize debater.

The chastisement was administered as a punishment for the theft of a plate of pancakes by Tumbleson.

Both students sat at the college dining hall, where students take turns on the table. The chef had just given Miss Stevens a plate of steaming pancakes, and it so happened that Tumbleson wanted some cakes at the same moment and claimed he was first to apply. But the chef, who was good looking, served her first. Then Miss Stevens put the cakes down for a moment, and in that moment Tumbleson seized his opportunity and the cakes. He turned to eat, but had not taken a step before the platter came down with a crash on his head. Tumbleson gave up the cakes.

MEANT TO OBJECT.

But Memory of an Inadequate Hand Made Lawyer "Pass."

The case of the Mt. Vernon Realty and Improvement Co. against John L. Swick, Robert A. Swink and A. W. Syrett was on trial in the Circuit Court at Clayton. Senator Kincaid was on the stand. While he was being questioned R. H. Stevens, one of the attorneys for the defense, let his fancy roam. He was thinking of a social game in which he had been dealt a disgustingly inadequate hand.

A question was asked just then which the lawyer did not like any better than the hypothetical hand that had been dealt to him.

"I pass," he said, looking sternly at Judge McElhinney.

The judge smiled and there was a roar in the courtroom which brought the attorney back to earth with a thud.

"I mean, your honor," he said apologetically, "I meant that I object."

TURN UNITARIAN DELEGATES DOWN

Edward Everett Hale and Others Barred From Church Federation Meeting.

SHARP ROW IS CAUSED

Secretary Explains Line Was Drawn on Creed, Not on the Men.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—There is war to the death in religious war, if you please—raging in and around this good city.

The National Federation of Churches is planning to hold a series of meetings in the city next month. About seven hundred official delegates and alternates are expected here, representing about eighteen million of church members.

Among the delegates elected were Dr. Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the United States Senate; John D. Long, ex-Secretary of the Navy; and the Rev. Dr. Samuel A. Eliot, president of the American Unitarian Association and son of President Eliot of Harvard.

The committee in charge of the scheme declined to admit the three delegates because they are Unitarians, not Christians, as managers see them. This set Unitarian leaders to saying things to relieve their minds.

The National Federation of Churches has been at work for two years arranging for the forthcoming meeting and has succeeded in getting the official bodies of more than twenty Evangelical denominations to name delegates. The announced aim is to show that, in some measure at least, Protestantism is not divided, but can work together. There is purpose, it is asserted, to secure organic union. The Unitarians got the idea that they were included and named as delegates the distinguished gentlemen in question.

The general secretary of the National Federation is the Rev. Dr. E. B. Sanford. The secretary said:

"I took no action without first consulting our full committee. The limitation was early made to such as unquestionably accept Jesus Christ as the head of the church. Ours is a religious movement. I feel sure that our Unitarian friends know where our limitation begins and where it ends."

"In my letter to Dr. Eliot I was particular to say that possibly few men are held in more general esteem than the three whom the Unitarians named. I put that matter even more strongly before them. We drew the line on discipline of Jesus Christ and it is no concern of our committee if a sharp clash results between such discipline and those who do not follow the head."

Said Dr. Thomas R. Slicer, pastor of the First Unitarian Church of the United States: "Let me emphasize, first of all, that we feel no resentment, but in some cases we feel that there is federation without federation. When unity is professed, it is a principle of ours. We stand for it, and we advocate it with all our power. It comes out in singular contrast to the action of the New York State conference on religion, which admits to its platform Jew as well as Gentile, and which is representative of real federation. It seems hardly worth while to fight and have the attempt take on the aspect of a fake."

SIX HUNDRED AT KNIGHTS' BALL.
Six hundred young people danced until 2 a. m. Thursday at St. Patrick's County (Knights of Father Mathew) ball at Westminster Hall, 306 Olive street. Mrs. Anna C. Dwyer was crowned queen and held court during the ball, with her maids of honor, Misses Thida, Brady, Anna F. Dierhart, Fannie Rouch, Regina Dougherty, Irene Dolan, Mamie Kelly, Mary McHenry and Anna Goodbody.

"Boro-Formalin" (Elmer & Amend) used as a tooth and mouth wash in the morning leaves the mouth sweet and pure all day.

PRISONER DENIES INSANITY.
Louis D. Dickson, who escaped from a Missouri prison at Columbus, O., Sept. 24, is held at Four Courts and will be returned to the Missouri penitentiary. He is not insane. He says he was bequeathed a one-third interest in an estate worth $100,000, but has never received any portion of the property. He also says he was never examined by a physician before his commitment to the asylum.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Scott C. Bone, who has been managing editor of the Washington Post for 17 years, severed his connection with that paper on the accession of John R. McLean as principal owner.

STUDENTS WOULD BLOW UP THE LID

St. Louis University Debating Club Condemns Gov. Folk's Attitude.

UNJUST TO POOR MAN

Verbal Melee So Hot Sergeant-at-Arms Was Forced to Act.

That Governor Folk is an inconsistent Puritan, that the Sunday "lid" discriminates between rich and poor, and that it will soon be wrenched loose and sent twirling skyward, were the principal conclusions reached by the St. Louis University Debating Society in a warm debate on the Sunday Closing Law, held in the College Hall Wednesday night.

The debate was participated in by all the members of the Debating Club, one of the oldest institutions of the college. Several visitors also entered the verbal melee and argument grew so hot that Sergeant-at-Arms Ralph Kinsella finally ejected two of the volunteer orators.

Prader Knapp, a member of the old Knapp family, led the attack upon the gubernatorial position.

"Gov. Folk," he said, "has enforced a law which does not reflect the wishes of the people. Consequently it will never be successfully carried through. It is a burden on the poor man, who is deprived of going on Sunday to what has been his club."

"The Sunday lid, in my opinion, will stay down about as long as longer, then," he left the rest to the imagination of his hearers, with several dramatic gestures indicative of something flying up in the air.

The debaters were practically silenced by these forceful arguments. Curtis Terman, however, ventured to assert that what was called the poor man's club was in reality a place where the poor man not only got entertained, but stayed that way, by dint of all Sunday imbibing, for the rest of the week.

BOY PICKPOCKET GANG.

Arrest of 9-Year-Old Youngster at Boston Reveals Organization.

SPECIAL TO THE POST-DISPATCH.
 BOSTON, Oct. 12.—In the arrest yesterday in a department store of Benjamin Zuren, 9 years old, the police believe they have unearthed a gang of juvenile pickpockets that has reaped a harvest in the big stores during the last four weeks.

Zuren stole a pocketbook from Mrs. E. F. Traflet, which contained $1.00. He detected the lad and grabbed him, but he fought like a tiger. When caught he was found in a bag sewed to the inside of his pants. He was a literal storehouse of stolen goods.

Nicholas Thomas, another of the gang, was arrested and much plunder was found.

TOO CLOSE TO STOVE.

Young Woman Severely Burned When Her Dress Ignited.

Mary Leahy, an employee at the home of Darius Mason of 133 Leonard avenue, is a patient at the City Hospital suffering from severe burns, the result of getting too close to the stove. The young woman had become chilled and was standing near the stove to keep warm. She did not notice when her skirt ignited, and suddenly the flames leaped into her face. With the help of others her clothes were torn off, but not until she was severely burned. She resides with her mother at 359 North Market street.

BODY IS IDENTIFIED.

Woman Who Threw Herself Into Park Pond Was Mrs. Hall.

The woman who cast herself into the pond in Benton Park Wednesday night was identified late Wednesday night as Mrs. Mary Hall, aged 48, of 1418 South Seventh street. Henry Roll, an iron worker, husband of the woman, accompanied by a friend, called at the morgue and identified the corpse.

Mrs. Hall was a patient in the Lutheran Hospital, Ohio and came here Tuesday evening and evidently wandered about the street all night and fell down. She was found by John Reuter, the park watchman. Mrs. Hall had been married 18 years and had two children.

HEAD OF HOSPITAL

J. F. O'REILLY, ENDORSES
DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

John Fanning O'Reilly, who for three years was superintendent of the Manhattan Hospital of New York City, and for six years previous to that service was chief clerk of the insane department at Ward's Island, expresses warm admiration for Doan's Kidney Pills.

We have many letters from prominent physicians and hospital authorities who have used Doan's Kidney Pills in practice with great success.

Mr. O'Reilly's letter follows:
 Foster-Milburn & Co., Buffalo, N. Y.:
 Gentlemen—I wish to publicly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. There is no doubt that all who have discovered the remedy can readily be cured if they use it. For over a year I had kidney trouble, pain across the groin, urinary troubles, loss of appetite and general weakness. An acquaintance who had been through a similar experience urged me to take Doan's Kidney Pills, and I am happy to say, the remedy was successful. Yours truly, J. FANNING O'REILLY.

Hard Work Often Strains the Back and Brings on Kidney Disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills Keep the Kidneys Well and the Back Strong.

Any work that is a constant strain on the back is certain to injure the kidneys, in time. That is why desk workers, farmers, laborers, teamsters, barbers, painters and workers in a hundred trades suffer so much from backache.

Many tasks, like housework, that do not require great physical strength are very trying on the back and kidneys. That is why backache is so common among women. That is why so many women are unnaturally weak and tired and sleepless.

When the kidneys are sick every exertion sends a sharp, stinging pain through the loins, and for hour after hour there will be a dull, heavy throbbing ache in the small of the back. You will feel weary all the time and urinary troubles may add to your misery.

Doan's Kidney Pills have given thousands of working men and women strong backs for their daily work. This remedy helps the kidneys to do their work, to filter the liquid poisons from the blood, and to send pure, health-giving blood to the muscles and organs. We would sincerely advise you to try Doan's Kidney Pills.

A TRIAL FREE—To prove what Doan's Kidney Pills will do for you, we will mail a free trial box on application. Address given below.

LEAPS TO DEATH TO EVADE TRIAL

Armitage Mathews, Secretary New York Republican Committee, Jumps From Window.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY

Prominent Young Lawyer Accused of Looting the Weissel Estate.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Rather than face trial on the indictments charging him with fraudulently taking money from the Weissel estate, Armitage Mathews, lawyer and secretary of the County Republican Committee, committed suicide today by jumping from a window in his apartment to a stone paved courtyard. He struck on his head, fracturing the skull and died in a short time.

Mathews, who was a young man, had advanced rapidly, both in the practice of his profession and in politics. He was a friend of former Gov. Black and of Abraham Grover, and they were loyal to him in his trouble, acting as legal advisers and doing all they could to aid him to obtain the change of venue from this county for which he pleaded.

The change of venue was denied yesterday and trial of the case was set for today before Justice Day in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court.

Early this morning Mathews received a special delivery letter. After reading it his housekeeper heard him go to a bath room and open a window. A few seconds later he jumped to his death. Several tenants in a house in the rear of Mathews' apartment saw him jump. A doctor was hurriedly summoned, but could do nothing and Mathews died in a few minutes.

Mathews was indicted last May on charges of conspiracy and grand larceny growing out of the looting of the Weissel estate, of which David Rothchild, wrecked of the Federal Bank, was administrator. John W. Wooten and Lawyer Samuel I. Ferguson were also indicted with Mathews on the same charges. Rothchild was already serving a long term in State prison for swindling the Federal Bank. Wooten was convicted in June and sentenced to nine years and five months in Sing Sing.

Wooten was kept in the Tombs as a possible important witness against Mathews. Ferguson was also expected to be a witness for the prosecution of Mathews.

Mathews was the local representative of the Bankers' Surety Company of Cleveland, in which was on Rothchild's bond for $400,000, as administrator of the Weissel estate. It was agreed by the four accused according to the indictment that Rothchild was to have sole possession of the estate and that whatever money he borrowed on it was to be shared by his associates.

Mathews of one time was an Assistant District Attorney. He served three terms as a member of the Board of Aldermen. Two years ago he was made Secretary of the County Republican Committee. After Rothchild was indicted and sent to Sing Sing prison he drew upon him to borrow a series of securities to which he accused Mathews of having a share in the looting of the Weissel estate.

FOUR HURT BY CARS.

Women Painfully Bruised in Trolley Accidents.

Four St. Louis women are confined to their homes Tuesday from injuries caused by street car accidents Wednesday. Mrs. C. M. Williams, 1827 Papin street, lost her balance in alighting from a Park car. Her left ankle was sprained and she was cut and bruised. Mrs. Margaret Shannon, 1229 North Eighteenth street, alighting from an Olive car at Eleventh street, was hurled to the ground and painfully though not seriously injured. Mrs. Mary Cathoun, Webster Groves, was thrown from a suburban car at Ninth street and suffered from bruises and shock. A pair wagon of the United Railways was struck by a Delmar car at Eighth street and Washington avenue. The wagon, tongue protruding through the car, struck Miss Reilly, who was thrown from the wagon. Lucas avenue, on the river shore, only a slight injury was inflicted.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Oct. 12.—The steamer John McCausland, a passenger and freight boat plying between here and Glasgow, was burned yesterday on the Hudson River, six miles north of this city. She had taken to Tivoli a party of Masons that had been visiting a sister lodge in this city and was returning when the fire broke out under her boiler.

Capt. Frank Reese beached the vessel on the flats and the crew jumped into the river and swam ashore.

INSURANCE MEN DODGE COMMITTEE

Financiers Like Harriman,
Hyde, Hamilton and Fields
Can't Be Reached.

LOBBYISTS KEEP AWAY

Legislative Agents of Big New York Companies in Canada and England.

By Leased Wire From The New York
Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The list of witnesses who are wanted by the Armstrong Insurance Investigating Committee is steadily growing. As the matter now stands it is as follows:
James H. Hyde, former vice-president of the Equitable Life, now in Newport,
R. I.

William H. McIntyre former fourth vice-president of the Equitable Life, supposed to be in the White Mountains.

Thomas D. Jordan, former controller of the Equitable Life, present whereabouts unknown.

Andrew Hamilton, legislative agent of the New York Life, in London.

John R. Hegeman, former director of the Equitable Life, in Japan.

John R. Hegeman, president of the Metropolitan Life, recently returned from Japan and now in British Columbia.

Andrew C. Fields, reputed legislative agent of the Mutual Life and head of its supply department, last heard of at Dobbs Ferry.

William H. Buckley, reputed legislative agent of the Mutual Life, believed to be in Canada.

Gen. Louis Fitzgerald, former director of the Equitable Life, present whereabouts unknown.

George H. Squire, former financial manager of the Equitable Life, too ill to testify.

James W. Alexander, former president of the Equitable Life, too ill to testify.

Entertained Assemblies.

It is declared that the Mutual Life maintained an elaborate establishment at Albany during the session of the legislature for the entertainment of the Assemblymen and Senators. It is also said that the company sent a New York chef to Albany, and that his culinary achievements were a delight to the legislators entertained at the house.

The guests who were most eagerly sought, after it is said, were those legislators who opposed the bills introduced by the insurance companies or favored those measures which the insurance companies were anxious to kill.

It was also said that a gentleman's company of pocket not infrequently took place in the Albany house of the Mutual Life, and that by some strange coincidence or freak of fate those legislators who were regarded as hostile by the insurance companies, and who took hand in the game, invariably quit large winners.

Mr. Hughes is exceedingly anxious to discover whether any of the money of the policyholders of the Mutual Life which found its way into one or another of its "yellow dog" funds ultimately passed across the poker table in the Albany house to some legislator who held a winning hand.

Mutual Kept Wine Cellar.

Some of the $2,000 charged on the Mutual Life for lunches during last year is said to have gone for expensive wines and liquors. It is also stated that for some years the Mutual Life has maintained an elaborate wine cellar in some hidden corner of the vast building on Nassau street. The committee is on the track of the firm of liquor dealers who are supposed to have sold costly wines to the Mutual Life, and some member of the firm may be subpoenaed.

The next public session of the committee will be held next Tuesday. It is to present the plan to resume the examination of President McCue.

In the Wall street district the appearance of Mr. McCue, on the 30th, on a witness stand before the Armstrong Investigating Committee is looked forward to with the keenest interest. Mr. McCue is one of the trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. and is credited with knowing more about the inside facts of the underwriting syndicates in which the Mutual Life and certain of its officers participated than anybody else.

Mr. McCue is also credited with having an intimate knowledge of other financial transactions of the Mutual Life which have indirectly enriched officers and trustees of the company.

Hunting for Fields.

All the energies of the committee, its aided and abetted by the city directory, are being concentrated upon Andrew G.
Fields, head of the supply department of the Mutual Life, and reputed agent of the company at Albany.

Mr. Fields is a peculiar man. It was known that he had three country homes
—one at Dobbs Ferry, one at Asbury Park and another at the Thousand Islands. It was learned today that he has a fourth country home just outside of New York, and that during the legislative session he maintains a winter home at Albany.

Whether Mr. Fields also has a home in this city could not be learned. His name does not appear in the city directory. The last information that the Armstrong committee had as to the whereabouts of Mr. Fields was that he had at his Dobbs Ferry home.

This place is being hunted for by Percy Rockefeller, a nephew of John D.
Rockefeller.

Can Find Yellow Dog.

Lynander W. Lawrence, proprietor of the Mutual Life Stationery Store, is also wanted by the committee. He is a witness. It is believed that Mr. Lawrence has a yellow dog which upon the operation of Mr. Fields. Immense sums have been charged on the books of the Mutual Life as having been spent for printing and stationery. During 1934, according to the books of the company, $200,000 was expended on these two items.

Nearly all of this expenditure and stationery supplies used by the Mutual Life are furnished by Mr. Lawrence.

But his sales for the company do not necessarily account for the $200,000 so far as is known during the last year. It has been stated that money was charged for stationery and printing never went for purposes of that kind, but to a "yellow dog" fund devoted to speculative purposes at Albany. A third "yellow dog" fund is believed to exist and to have been supplied with money charged to the account of advertising.

NO TIME FOR NEGROES.

Request for Half Hour With President at New Orleans Ignored.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 12.—After United States Senator McEnery had delivered a severe arraignment of the negroes for trying to interfere with the plans as originally mapped out for the reception that will be tendered to President Roosevelt here Oct. 26, the executive committee declined to let action on the request of representative negroes for a half hour of the President's time. The committee will ignore the negroes entirely.

FREED BY MISSING WORD.

Indictment Against Negro Officer Is Found Defective.

Joseph Wilson, a negro special officer, who was indicted on the charge of assaulting Oliver Heck, an election judge, at Fourteenth and Locust streets a year ago, was Wednesday dismissed in the criminal division of the Circuit Court because of a defect in the indictment. The word "with," which should have appeared before the words "a deadly weapon," was omitted. Wilson, who was suspended from the force after the indictment, has been reinstated.

ROOSEVELTS TO LIVE HERE

President's Second Cousin Will Wed Woman Architect.

The marriage of Miss Adelaide Lange, known as the one woman architect of St. Louis, and Andre Roosevelt, second cousin of the President, will take place this evening at the home of Dr. D. J. Hoisinger, 1229 Sheridan road, Chicago. Judge Theodore Britton will perform the ceremony. Following the wedding, the couple will tour Europe, where Mr. Roosevelt has already travelled extensively, and will then come to St. Louis to reside.

BIGGEST HORN AND SMALLEST REED

LOUIS KNITTEL AND THE SMALLEST CLARINET IN THE WORLD PLAYED BY GENE COLE.

THE biggest horn and the smallest reed in the world are being used by musicians in Noel Poeppings' Band at the Horse Show this week. Louis Knittel plays an E flat contra bass saxophone that is seven feet high and has a bell 18 inches in diameter. Should Mr. Poeppings object to Mr. Knittel's playing he might order him thrust into the bell of his own instrument, which would entomb the greater part of his anatomy. Notwithstanding its great size this saxophone does not require an extraordinary amount of wind. The keys are, naturally, far apart and Mr. Knittel's hands must move swiftly over great distances. The tone is a heavy rumble which would prove disastrous if it were not artistically controlled by Mr. Knittel. Gene Cole plays the smallest clarinet in the world. It is a flat, 14 inches long and of such thin tone that when Mr. Poeppings was asked to describe it he said: "It is just a screech."

FORTY FLED FROM FIRE IN BLANKETS

"Kindle One for Me," Said Hartford Guest, Puff of Flame Reply.

GARDEN HOSE TOO WEAK

While Hotel Patrons Like Indians Gathered in Street, Firemen Conquered.

It was cold in Thomas H. Bond's second-story room at the Hartford, 2912 Washington avenue, when he awoke Thursday. He jumped out of bed and pressed a button.

"I want you to build me a fire," he shouted into the speaking tube. As he turned away from the wall he saw a burst of smoke from the fireplace.

"House is on fire, Morris!" shouted Bond, giving the alarm. He rushed downstairs in time to see Morris Hall, furnace man of the house, attaching a garden hose to the backyard hydrant.

"House is on fire, Morris!" shouted Bond, giving the alarm. He rushed downstairs in time to see Morris Hall, furnace man of the house, attaching a garden hose to the backyard hydrant.

"I know it," said the furnace man. "Just watch me put it out. And he directed a delicate stream of water toward the smoke pouring from the rear of the basement.

Board Turned in an Alarm. Most of the 40 boarders at the Hartford are married couples. As the landlady, standing on the first floor, rang alarm bells in all the rooms, two dozen women and children, wrapped in quilts and blankets, ran into the hallway.

A hole burned through the dining room floor gave the water entrance to the first floor, and considerable damage was done by water in the parlor and hall before the stream was turned off. Damage to the house is estimated at $100, and the contents an equal sum. Mr. Bond's effects were damaged by smoke.

RAILROAD TO ROCKPILE

Prisoner Breaking Stone an Hour After His Offense.

Justice in St. Louis County may be blind as a bat, but it does not move with leaden feet. Arrested, jailed, tried and convicted, the prisoner of Charles found himself with a mallet in his hand breaking his first stone in Clayton Jail yard, hour with a mallet threatened to take sundry pokes at the face of a butcher in Weston.

Workhouse Inquiry. Said That Mayor Will Follow Up Grand Jury Investigation.

It is rumored at the City Hall that Mayor Wells will investigate conditions at the Workhouse after the grand jury gets through probing into alleged abuses there. It is said that evidence is being gathered for an inquiry to take place in the Mayor's office.

Senator Says He Never Learned to Talk for Publication.

Senator Joseph Ralph Burton of Kansas, now under indictment in St. Louis on the charge of using his influence before the Post Office Inspector in behalf of the Rialto Grain and Securities Co., is at the Southern Hotel. He said he won his life by being a talker.

BRITISH SHIP ASHORE IN GALE

GIBRALTAR, Oct. 12.—The British repair ship Assistance is ashore in Tetuan Bay, Morocco. Warships, steamers and lighters have gone from here to her aid. A heavy gale endangers the position of the vessel.

The Assistance is fitted with a foundry, machine tools, etc., carries a crew of 282 men and mounts 10 24-pounder quick-firing guns.

MULE THROUGH WINDOW.

Balky Missouri Product Backed Through $50 Glass.

Feeling too good to walk in the street after reading of the triumphs of his species at the Horse Show, a mule—Missouri mule—took to the sidewalk at Olive street and Newstead avenue while on his way in the early morning to work. Reckless for this presumption he walked backward through $50 worth of plate glass in the Pringle-Bishop drug store, and scared the night clerk there out of an hour's industrious sleep.

The mule is one of span belonging to J. D. Holmes, 4314 Easton avenue, and driven by Bernard Hartnett, aged 21, of 601 North Market street. The young man was steering them with the reins, though they were not attached to any vehicle. This method of control proved unreliable and when the largest of the mules headed for the sidewalk, the driver was compelled to let him go.

TAG LOST, POLICE SAID.

But It Was on Owner's Auto, Despite Their Report.

Policeman Frank Pearson arrested Oswald Schultz, chauffeur for Elias Michael, at Tenth street and Washington avenue, on the charge of exceeding the speed limit, and incidentally asked him to explain the presence of license plate No. 228 on the rear of the machine. The police, he said, had been instructed to look for that number, it being reported stolen.

The chauffeur and Mr. Michael, when he returned gave bond, said they knew nothing of their number being reported lost.

FITS MANY

To Leave Off Coffee and Use Postum.

Postum Coffee shows its great nourishing power in many ways.

"I was nursing my baby six months ago," writes a young nation, "and I found that tea and coffee did not agree with me. I grew nervous and weak, my appetite was not good, and besides, baby was cross and fretful. He didn't seem to get proper nourishment from my milk, and friends said, 'You must wean him, he is starving.'"

"I gave up tea and coffee and tried cocoa, chocolate and milk instead, but still baby didn't seem to thrive. At last, on the advice of a friend, I began to use Postum Coffee, and I can truly say that the effect was wonderful! Both baby and I began to improve in appetite, spirits and flesh immediately. In three months my boy weighed 20 pounds and he is as good as a baby as a mother could wish to have. My drinking Postum did it."

"I cannot recommend Postum Food Coffee too highly to nursing mothers. It is better in flavor than the other coffee and is far superior in nutritive qualities, supplying just what the child must have, as no other food can do."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason—explained in the quaint little book, "The Road to Wellville," in each pkg.

GOV. FOLK AND HIS STAFF AT HORSE SHOW

Didn't Wear Their "Glad Harness" and They Are Sorry of It.

MISSOURI MULE THERE

Long-Eared Warrior Divided Honors With Horses, Statesmen and Fine Toilets.

GOVERNOR IS PLEASED

He Had His Famous Smile With Him and Used It Freely.

Ten or twelve thousand well-dressed men and women were crowded in the Coliseum Wednesday night when, at 9 o'clock, Gov. Folk and his staff came filing into the boxes prepared for them on the south side of the promenade.

With them was ex-Gov. David R. Francis.

It was not the iridescent and iridescent staff which the big crowd had hoped and expected to see, in all the splendor of gold epaulettes and gold braid, and when the party came in, as modest as a violet by a mossy stone, half hidden from the eye, comparatively few persons in the audience, except those nearest to them, recognized the party.

All were in evening dress—and thereby hangs a wonderful tale. When it was decided at the last moment that it would not be in good taste to wear their staff uniforms there was a wild scramble for dress suits, and those colonels who had come from a distance managed to find them for the occasion, and, what is remarkable, every suit was a perfect fit.

On Little Miss.

A few astronomers who had their glasses turned up at the star of the evening and the constellation of which he was the center as they wheeled into sight, and a mild round of applause—very mild—went up.

Away over in Section E, near where Noel Pepping and his band were pumping out the strains of "Tammany," there was heard one hiss—only solitary hiss. The strain of the "Lid" was too great.

But that one hiss was too weak to pierce the tanbark air between its author and the Governor, far across the arena, and even had the sibilatory sound reached him, it is doubtful if it would have disturbed his serenity; for was it not Governor's Night at the Horse Show, and was not the Governor himself the one entity upon which attention was centered?

Yes, they were the whole show—Folk and D. R. F.; Folk, D. R. F. and the world-famous Missouri mule.

Mule's Great Showing.

And what a showing the mule made! He was there in almost every shape and color, excepting pink and gamboge. There were black mules, bay mules, gray mules, blue-black mules, dapple gray mules, sorrel mules and even black and white mules, and that rarest of all patterns, calico mules.

"Where, oh, where, Gov. Folk, are those sky-bright uniforms with which your staff were expected to be bedight this evening?" the chief executive was asked.

The Governor leaned forward and smiled one of those unforgotten Folk smiles. "I decided," he said, "that as this was to be a horse show, and not a staff show, it was better to leave off the uniforms."

Regret for Those Uniforms.

"Ah," he said, luxuriatingly, "those are great uniforms. There are gold epaulettes and gold braid reaching from here to here," describing with his right forefinger a comprehensive semicircle reaching from the reporter's left shoulder almost to his diaphragm and up to his right clavicle.

Plainly enough his action said: "It is too bad we didn't get to wear them." Col. Tom Hennings bore the deprivation manfully and smiled throughout the evening, and Col. George S. McGrew, who wears nobby golf togs with such insouciance and heaven-bought grace, was not as much put out as he

WATERBOY THE STAR OF SADDLE CLASSES

Mrs. Bratton's Walk-Trot Horse Looks Like a World's Champion—Mr. Busch Gave Fine Exhibition.

BY J. D. SHENKMAN.

Waterboy, the heavy weight walk, trot and canter saddle horse, owned by Mrs. J. S. Bratton, is the equine sensation of the St. Louis Show. It is a matter of doubt that a better walk-trot and canter horse has ever worn a bridle. The horse becomes especially strong when you remember that Waterboy is a green horse, making his first show and that only one month ago he was a stallion and undocked.

He is a tremendous saddle horse, 4 years old with dark points, not a single white hair on him. For a horse who was a stallion up to a few days ago he has a remarkably fine head and neck. Indeed, his throatlatch is so fine and head so small that they remind one of a weanling filly. Yet they are not out of proportion to his body. Fully 15 hands high and up to carrying 200 pounds he has the shoulder of a greyhound and the back of a derrick. If there is a fault to him it may be that he is light through the stifles and thighs. The quality of his bone and sinew more than makes up for any slight deficiency of flesh there may be apparent. It is by no means certain that there is any. The horse is beautifully mannered, though far from being familiar with the business of the show ring. His action at the trot and canter is natural perfection, but not regular or smooth. These things will come with training, as will the walk, in which he is at present deficient.

If there were a championship probability it is Waterboy. While he is green and not in the best of condition it is a good bet that he will win the heavyweight championship at New York and that good judges will say he is the best saddle horse ever seen in an American show ring. Waterboy is one of those Missouri-bred horses who beat the world, but of the merits and value of which the Missouri breeder and farmer who produce him have slight knowledge.

Crawford Buys Morning Glory.

Mr. G. D. Crawford purchased from Ball Bros. of Versailles, Ky., the walk-trot and canter gelding Morning Glory, who took second in Waterboy in the heavyweight ring last night. Morning Glory, a 3-year-old colt, does not possess the size of development of Waterboy, but gives great promise of being quite as good a horse when age helps him to furnish. Having had the benefit of Howard Ball's handling Morning Glory is much better trained horse than Waterboy. He is perfect in his gait and manners and in every respect looks like a coming champion. Mr. Crawford paid $2,500 for this accomplished gelding who was easily beaten by an older, but less accomplished, uneducated horse, Waterboy. The $2,500 paid for Morning Glory under these circumstances gives one an idea of what Waterboy is worth.

Classes Poorly Conditioned.

Some time ago I called attention to the fact that the classification conditions governing the saddle classes in the St. Louis show were not well made. I pointed out that they permitted a horse up to 200 pounds to compete with the 155 class against middle weight horses. Results prove that I was right. Waterboy won the heavyweight championship, where he properly belongs. The conditions of the middle-weight class permitted him to enter

GIRL'S BITE IS DEADLY AS SNAKE

German Professor Explains Experiments to Wesleyan Students.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Oct. 12.—Prof. W. D. Miller of the University of Berlin sent shivers down the backs of the students at Wesleyan yesterday when he announced in a lecture that the bite of a girl would often bring a quicker and more horrible death than the bite of a serpent.

Prof. Miller, who has made a special study of the bacteria of the mouth, said that only a short time ago he experimented on a girl in Germany and found that an arrow dipped in saliva from her mouth would render its victim in death three or four times as fast as the bite of the most deadly snake.

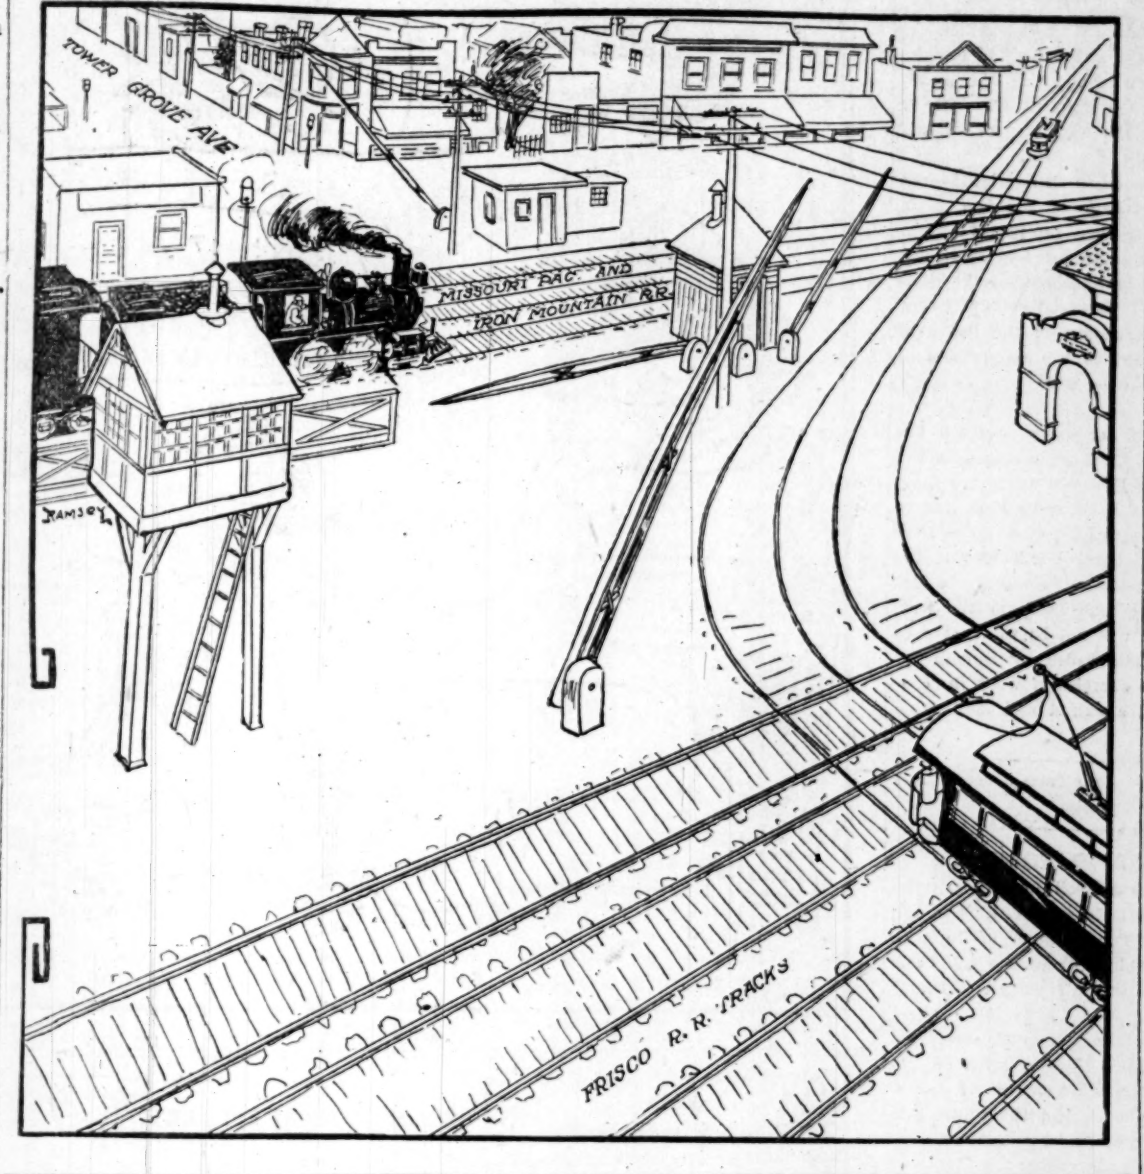

Prof. Miller said that there was a lesson in this for dentists.

might have been, but Col. Emmet Newton, who came all the way from Carleton to shine in the judges' stand across the arena, into the promenade and up to the Governor's box.

Parollet held a bundle of something as big as a sheaf of wheat, and so fast he flicked it around that it resembled a streak of yellow light.

Just after the mounted police drill was over President Max Orthwein, of the Horse Show Association, "chased merrily from the judges' stand across the arena, into the promenade and up to the Governor's box."

Most Dangerous Grade Crossing at Old Manchester and Tower Grove Avenues

TOWER GROVE GRADE CROSSING

Commission Thinks It Worst and Will Try to Abolish It First.

The grade crossing at Tower Grove avenue and Old Manchester road, which the Grade Crossing Commission has deemed shall be the first to receive attention, is one of the most dangerous in the city from the fact that it is located on the main line of two of the great railroad systems serving St. Louis, and that it is crossed by two trolley line tracks used by two great street railway divisions.

In addition the big St. Louis branch of the Continental Tobacco Co., formerly Liggett & Myers, is located at this point, and a great railway yard from which all the shipping for this great plant is done is maintained there; the switch engines frequently shunting cars across the street.

At the meeting Tuesday of the Grade Crossing Commission, held at the Jackson Hotel, President O'Reilly of the Commission, advised the representatives of the Missouri Pacific and the Frisco railroads to attend the hearing Thursday.

GAMBLERS GAIN TIME.

Arrested for Betting in Alexandria Co., Va., Question Cession of Territory.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Betting on the races was resumed at Jackson City, Va., just across the Potomac River where, a few days ago, the new poolroom was raided, the proprietors, John C. Nelson and James Lafontaine, were arrested, convicted of conducting a gambling establishment and admitted to jail.

They raised the question of the legality of the retrocession by Congress to Virginia of that portion of the District of Columbia originally ceded for the national capital. This now consists of a part of Alexandria County, Virginia, and the poolroom is located there.

SCHOOL BOY KILLED.

Crushed Under Heavy Coal Wagon He Was Trying to Board.

Little Johnnie McWilliams, who was crushed by the wheel of a coal wagon at Page and Chestnut avenues Wednesday afternoon, died at City Hospital two hours after the fatal accident happened.

He was on his way home from school and tried to jump on the wagon. He slipped and fell between the front wheel and the side of the wagon.

HOTTENTOTS WHIP GERMANS; KILL 5

Chiefs Go on Warpath in Southwest Africa and Win Battle.

CAPE TOWN, Cape Colony, Oct. 12.—Morenga and Morija, chiefs of the rebellious Hottentots of German Southwest Africa, have captured Jerusalem Camp, between Warmbad and Scuit Drift, after severe fighting, during which Lieut. Marais and five men were killed and eight were wounded.

The Hottentots sustained no losses and captured all the stock and stores. Several Germans were made prisoners, but after being disarmed were allowed to return to Lieutenant-General von Trotha, commander of the German forces, who has been asserting that the Hottentots were not in a position to take the offensive and would fight only on their own soil.

GET "A SQUARE DEAL."

But Young Teacher Had to Go to Roosevelt and Force It.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Miss Marie R. Overton, an attractive young woman, teaches school at Richmond Hill, Long Island. Patriotic and adventurous, she determined to teach the budding Americans in the Philippines.

WANTS AFFIDAVITS.

Attorney-General Hadley Argues to Dismiss St. Louis Appeals Cases.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 12.—Attorney General Hadley has raised the question of the filing of affidavits of appeal cases from St. Louis in which no affidavits have been filed.

USED HORSE LINIMENT.

One would think that an ambulance driver who has been around the City Dispensary for a long time would know what to do when his neck became sore, but Robert Taylor, with all his experience, is "under the treatment" for the effects of doing the wrong thing.

The thing he did was to use horse liniment on his own neck. It took the pride out of him and much of the hide out of him. The last confession of that man, to paraphrase scripture, was worse than the first. His reasoning was that liniment which was good for a human horse ought to be good for a human.

He is now being treated by the City Dispensary physicians, and lotions adapted to the neck of a man.

SOCIALISTS MAY SUE KIELY, FOLK

Ignore Chief of Police, to Hold Outdoor Meeting.

A meeting of Socialists will be held Friday evening at Pine and Twelfth streets, it was stated Thursday by W. M. Brandt, Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements.

Mr. Brandt declared that he did not anticipate a repetition of the police's action on the night of Sept. 27, when the meeting at Olive and Twelfth was broken up, and several of those present roughly handled, but said that in case this occurs again criminal action will be begun against Chief Kiely, Mayor Wells and Gov. Folk.

To Establish Right.

"In case any arrests are made," he said, "we will have an opportunity to establish our right to hold such meetings, in meeting no answer, the Socialists are placed against us. If no arrests are made we shall be compelled to take the initiative legal action. It will probably be on the charge of assault and battery, with the Governor, Mayor and Chief of Police as principal defendants."

Concerning the request made by Chief Kiely for a conference, Mr. Brandt said:

"We will hold no conference such as he proposes—that is, to consider postponing or calling off the meeting. If he wishes to confer with us as to means of preserving the best order, we will be glad to talk to him."

What Mayor Said.

"Where do you wish to hold the meeting?" the mayor asked.

"Twelfth and Pine streets," we said.

"Well, you cannot hold it on any street."

"Why?" we asked.

HONK! EXULTS THE POLICE AUTO

After 35-Mile-an-Hour Chase Officer Motorist Wins Race for Train.

EDW. GOULD'S MAN FINED

Another Speed Test After Negro Who Burned Up the Streets.

The speed of the new four-cylinder police auto was proven in two automobile cases in City Hall Police Court Thursday.

On the night of Sept. 29, Carl Bickel, the chauffeur of Edwin Gould, was trying to make the Union Station in time to catch a train for Mr. Gould. He let his machine out on the Pine street hill that begins at Thirty-first street. Officer Conney, in the police automobile, saw the machine at Thirtieth and told his chauffeur to let her go for all she was worth.

"I wanted to show these drivers of the big cars that we can catch them. I looked down at the speedometer as we just touched one of the tracks at Jefferson, and it registered 35 miles. I suppose if we had hit a car it would have been all up with us. But we were willing to take the risk to show these chaps we could catch them. We caught the machine at Union Station," was the testimony of Officer Conney.

Judge Tracy fined Bickel $25, saying that to catch a train was not excuse for going through a city of 70,000 inhabitants at express train speed.

Hot Pursuit.

Frank Fleming, a negro chauffeur for a West End auto company, was pursued by Officer Conney through a labyrinth of streets at a speed that often sent both car and driver into the gutter.

Policeman Pearson of the Central District was the prosecuting witness in another auto chase. Some time ago instructions had been issued to all policemen to watch for license number 324, reported lost or stolen. Wednesday night Pearson saw a machine pass him at the corner of Twelfth and Washington bearing the license 324. When they didn't stop he put on his siren and, in addition, he pursued the car on a street car and caught it at Sixth and Washington.

It was the machine of Elias Michael, driven by Oswald Schultz and carrying its owner and another man. He arrested the chauffeur, Judge Tracy fined him $10 for not stopping and exceeding the limit of six miles an hour.

STEALING KEG OF BEER COSTLY.

One keg of beer cost Martin Anderson of Lebanon two months in the Belleville jail when he was arrested for stealing it in August for stealing the beer from Mathias and his wife's place. He was sentenced to the grand jury and was unable to give bail.

When the case was called in Judge Moore's court, Wednesday afternoon, State's Attorney Pecksham entered a nolle prosequi in the charge, and Anderson pleaded guilty to petit larceny and was fined $5 and costs and sentenced to one day in jail. The beer was valued at $4.

CAN'T BE GOOD ALWAYS

Like the deacon whose horse balked in the rain, we can't be good always. We make mistakes, but if it stop at his corner, we can't be good always. We make mistakes, but if it stop at his corner, we can't be good always. We make mistakes, but if it stop at his corner, we can't be good always.

FANCY BACK COMBS.

It is an acknowledged fact that we handle more high-grade, fancy, mounted Back Combs than all the other St. Louis houses combined.

Recognizing this fact, the most successful manufacturer of these goods in the United States offered us his entire surplus stock at about 25c on the dollar. We accepted his offer and now place on sale the most elegant and exclusive Combs ever offered at bargain prices. These goods are strictly high grade and must not be confounded with goods usually offered at reduced prices. Original prices were $3.00, $5.00, $6.00, $8.00 and $10.00 each. We place the entire purchase on sale.

At 48c, 98c, $1.48, $1.98, $2.98 and $3.98 Each

These goods must be seen to be appreciated, as each piece is a work of art.

CELL REWARD OF GOOD SAMARITAN

He Carried Thieves' Victim on Back, Only to Be Arrested.

WILL GO BY NEXT TIME

Night in Police Station Cures Him of Benevolent Impulses.

The next time Charles Harris comes upon a man who has gone down to Jericho, east of Fourth street, and fallen among thieves, he will not play the part of the Good Samaritan.

Rather will he assume the Levite and pass by on the other side.

Albert H. Kline of 216 North Twentieth street went to Jericho Wednesday night. He drank of the wine of Jericho, and the thieves among whom he fell not only stripped him of his raiment, but took his gold.

And Harris, as he journeyed through that region, came where the man was, and when he saw him he had compassion on him.

Now this came to pass at the mouth of an alley on Walnut street, between Second and Third streets.

And the Good Samaritan took him up and carried him on his own back toward Chestnut Street Police Station.

And as they went an officer of the city met them, to whom the Good Samaritan told all that had happened, and the officer went with them to the station.

To Cells for Both.

Now when they were come there the man who had fallen among thieves was taken to the cells, and the Samaritan, robbed of two pieces of silver and accused the Good Samaritan.

So they were both locked up, the men who had fallen among thieves and the Samaritan.

But when the man had slept, he saw with a clearer vision and when the morning came he told the officer of the city that the Good Samaritan had done him no harm.

And the Good Samaritan was set free and went on his way rejoicing, but he was not to curb his benevolent impulses in future.

THE POST-DISPATCH

Edited by J. B. Sheridan.

CARDINALS WILL HAVE REAL BOSS IN O'DAY

Discipline, Heretofore a Joke Among Local National Leaguers, Will Be Enforced by New Manager—Privileges Players Have Enjoyed in the Past.

The exclusive announcement in Wednesday's Post-Dispatch that Umpire Hank O'Day is soon to sign with President Robinson as next year's manager of the Cardinals has excited general comment among local baseball enthusiasts and players.

Opinions of O'Day's executive ability differ. Some believe that his long career as an umpire has not especially fitted him as a judge of players and that he will make mistakes in that direction.

However that may be, it is readily conceded that O'Day is a man of forceful character—stubborn, one might say, or as the Irish express it, "thick-witted." The players will find in O'Day a marked change from the mild-mannered Donovan, the modest and easy-going Nichols and the well-meaning, but hunt-minded Burke.

O'Day will be boss. Whatever may be O'Day's limitations regarding the judging of young players or the selection of men for the various positions of his team, there never will be any doubt raised as to who is the boss of the work. O'Day was a crack pitcher of baseball in the days of the old Washington Club and for several years—no one knows just how many—has been more than a good judge of balls and strikes. His success in these lines has developed in him the idea that there is no one who knows quite so much about pitching, umpiring and baseball in general as Hank O'Day himself.

With that in mind, one can imagine the surprise which is bound to come to Brady or Burke when they shall attempt to inform the new manager who is the best man to play third base or what pitcher should be the day's game. There will be a noticeable change in the attitude of the players.

From the old regime and whether or not the Cardinals will be the pennant next year, it is safe to say that every man will give his best work to the team or there will be some strange faces adorning the Vandeventer avenue benches before the season is far advanced.

It is a fact well known to those who have been thrown into contact with the local National League players and their numerous managers, that in the way of personal liberties and privileges these same players have been favored—much to the disaster of their pennant chances—more than any other club in either of the big leagues.

Discipline Here a Joke. Recall the sensational Taylor case of last year, when that player was excommunicated from the club on the charge of his own plea that he and Beckley had been "out with the boys" on the night previous to Saturday's game. Compared to the times innumerable during the past two years when Cardinal players have been misused from the bench, not because they had lame arms or legs, but generally because of "morning after" effects, or pure laziness. Even the little disturbances of Dan F. O'Day Taylor last Sunday while trying to gain entrance for his friends to the Browns-White Sox game was due, according to Taylor's own admission, to his assumption of the right to enter the grounds without a ticket.

The players themselves will tell you of this undue laxity in the way of discipline and managerial enforcement. Only yesterday one of the Cardinals said:

While I was a member of another National League club two years ago, I used to think I enjoyed considerable freedom in the way of relaxation from the requirements and excuses of my duty when I felt inclined to work, but those special privileges were nothing compared to the general privileges and freedom allowed and taken advantage of by the Baltimore players. Compared to the other clubs in the major leagues, the discipline in the Cardinals ranks is a huge joke.

GIANTS GET 2 IN FIRST

Still Adherents of Athletics Claim Deferred Game in Their Favor.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. KATLAH, PA., Oct. 12.—Football weather greeted the faithful "fans" who journeyed to Columbia Park this afternoon to witness the third game of the post-season series between the New York Giants of the National League, and the Athletics of the American League, scheduled for 2:30 this afternoon.

Although the sun shone brightly a clear, brisk northwest wind swept over the field, making winter overcoats very comfortable for the 10,000 spectators of the contest.

The New York contingent who remained over night to witness today's game, which was postponed from yesterday on account of rain, were up bright and early and thronged the box seats of the hotel Continental, headquarters, with good money to place in their team. The Athletics' followers were no less loyal, and much money was posted.

A Baltimorean bet $40,000 that the Athletics would win the game. It is considered by those in the position to know that the postponement gives the Athletics a better chance in the series, as it enables Plank, who had been about pitched out, an opportunity to recuperate, and gives Bender a good rest before his next turn in the box.

The change by the National Commission of the hour for starting the games in the future from 3 o'clock to 2:30 brought the crowd out early, and by 1:30 the best seats in the bleachers were taken.

LOCAL TEAMS IN FOURTH CONTEST

McAleer Still Confident of Winning Series—Sun Puts Life in Players.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. LEAGUE PARK, Oct. 12.—In spite of the fact that the Cardinals are now leaving the Browns in the sun, McAleer expressed himself before today's game as confident he would annex the series. The appearance of the sun had an excellent effect on the attendance, the crowd being larger than that of Wednesday.

The fans are apparently taking just as much interest in the world's championship games as they are in the result of the local games, judging by the way the bulletins were watched.

M. A. C. AQUATIC MEET. Relay Race Feature of Ladies' Night Entertainment.

The relay race, which was won by O. Schwarz's team, proved to be the most interesting feature of the evening aquatic night. The occasion was celebrated as Ladies' Night, and a fair crowd witnessed the events.

Dr. Sheldon won the diving contest, as anticipated, and Margard Schwarz's victory in the 100-yard handicap was also expected. Swimming coach Dr. McFerrit gave an exhibition of fancy swimming that was much enjoyed.

50-yard hurdle race—Ed Cobb won. H. L. Stead second. Charles Turner third. 100-yard hurdle race—C. Grimm won. M. Toepfen second. J. C. Myers third. 50-yard relay race—O. Schwarz, Gossling, Grimm and Toepfen won. M. Schwarz, Myers, Lloyd and Stead second. 100-yard relay race—O. Schwarz, Gossling, Grimm and Toepfen won. M. Schwarz, Myers, Lloyd and Stead second.

Water polo game—Capt. Gossling's team won. 4 to 0. M. Schwarz, Siegel, Gossling, Myers, Toepfen and Cobb composed the winning team.

Taylor Again Proves TOO MUCH FOR BROWNS. "If the Browns could have hit Taylor, it would have been no more effective. If they had not been so ineffective." These were the reasons given to a Post-Dispatch reporter by Manager McAleer for the Browns' defeat by the Cardinals Wednesday. "We simply can't hit Taylor," acknowledged the Browns' manager.

The game was the most farcical seen on the local grounds for weeks. It was a case of the Browns' inability to hit Taylor, who was hitting the Browns' pitchers. The game was a case of the Browns' inability to hit Taylor, who was hitting the Browns' pitchers.

GOSSIP OF THE ROPED ARENA. The post-Dispatch has developed into a light-weight since it was knocked out by the Cardinals. The Cardinals have been hitting the Browns' pitchers. The game was a case of the Browns' inability to hit Taylor, who was hitting the Browns' pitchers.

DEATHS AND INJURIES DUE TO FOOTBALL. NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Forty-five deaths and hundreds of serious injuries are the record of football for the last five years, according to a canvass made by the Herald, the result of which is printed today. In almost every instance the deaths were due directly to the heavy mass plays against which the Herald says President Roosevelt and his cabinet are protesting so vigorously.

SIX-FINALS TODAY. Eight golfers survived the first two rounds of play in the annual Missouri State Golf Championship which began Thursday at Normandy Park. No qualifying round was played. All rounds were at 18 holes match play.

Walter Gilliam Makes Best Score in State Golf Tourney. The J. J. Howard-Bart Adams match was the feature of the day, an extra hole being necessary to decide the match.

Walter Gilliam made the best score of the day, 88 for the round. He defeated Walter Gilliam, the local champion, in the last moment and acquitted himself creditably, winning by a 10-hole margin.

The semi-finals will be played today and the final for the championship is scheduled to be played Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The following are the survivors of the first round: J. J. Howard, B. W. Scudder, J. W. Bonin, Ralph McKittick, Eugene Gunder, G. D. Fisher, Walter Gilliam.

Yesterday's results were: Round 18 holes, match play—Eugene Gunder defeated G. D. Fisher, 10 to 8. J. J. Howard defeated B. W. Scudder, 10 to 8. J. W. Bonin defeated J. W. Bonin, 10 to 8. Ralph McKittick defeated Eugene Gunder, 10 to 8.

WHO WANTS $1710 CHECKS?
The police of the Carr Street Station have a bundle of checks, drawn for various amounts and aggregating in face value $1710. The name, Thomas Bryant, appears on the checks, which were found at Seventh and Pine streets by Abraham Sivak of 1317 North Eighth street. The police do not believe that the checks are genuine and the theory is advanced that they are the property of some business college student, who was probably "padding."

Sport Comment
SHERIDAN
The boy is father of the man. President Roosevelt probably remembered this old proverb when he began his crusade to elevate the spirit of sportsmanship among college boys. If the captain of the freshman football team is taught that it is unworthy of a gentleman to take unfair advantage of an opponent he when in later life he becomes president of an insurance company will not be apt to take unfair advantage of his policy holders.

While the work of the President in the way of promoting peace between Russia and Japan may appeal more directly to public appreciation, as an accomplishment of great merit there can not be any doubt that in going to the root of the spirit of unfair dealing and insisting that the boy be taught the elements of true sportsmanship, Mr. Roosevelt has undertaken a work of far greater ultimate importance to the welfare of mankind.

The lack of true sportsmanship in American colleges is due entirely to the teaching of the professional coach. The original professional athletic instructors were ex-professional foot racers. They had the art of cross, double cross, re-cross and cross again down to the finest of fine points. It is not going too far to say that they would scuttle a pair to make a $5 bill.

These men were first to learn the art of conditioning an athlete. They were, and still are, past masters in the science of producing perfect physical condition. Their ability in this line secured them positions as physical instructors and trainers. It would have been right if their work was limited to conditioning their boys. Unfortunately the task of inculcating the spirit of sportsmanship was left to them.

What they taught may be imagined. It was "win at any cost, and if it is to be won, to do it by hook or by crook." The American gentleman Mr. Roosevelt has undertaken a work of supreme importance to the social, business, as well as the athletic community.

There was a great pitcher named Taylor. Whose tongue outran that of a sailor. He bewled out his boys. "Who was Nicks, 'old Hom'?" And the "lawd" cost him fifty dollars. Did you ever hear tell of Mike Grady. The catcher whose throwing was shady. He was a swell hater.

But his language was bitter. When Horatio reached for that dollar. Some one said "Poor Macbeth. Ambition murdered him." Grady's ambition to be manager of the Cardinals may never "murder" him, but some of his rivals for the job may turn the trick.

Henry O'Day, once a fine pitcher, later a splendid umpire, will manage the Cardinals next year. There is one way to successfully handle that bunch. That way is with a club.

In order to repress anarchistic tendencies among Russian college students the authorities of Moscow found it necessary to shoot 200 of them last week. We do these things better in America. Rugby football disposes of the student quite as effectively as Cossack rifles.

It appears to me that the great success of the Horse Show should do much to popularize polo and fox hunting with the gentlemen of St. Louis. Polo, which to a year or so ago, possessed quite a following in the city, seems to have lost its grip upon the affections of its most ardent devotees. While it was played only at the Country Club, it had a large clientele, a clientele which it seems to be losing.

Many of the star players of the team, among them G. H. Walker, C. W. Scudder and George Doane, have lost interest in the sport. It is still played at the Country Club, but in a perfunctory way only.

Hunting never did have a foothold in St. Louis. This is surprising. Every other city in the West has its pack of hounds. Chicago has several. So has Kansas City, Louisville and Cincinnati.

Fox hunting is more practicable for the average business man than polo. It calls for less men, the expenditure of less money, energy and horseflesh. While jockeys may scoff at chasing an animal good bag, the fact remains that no matter what the hounds may be chasing, the riding afforded is almighty fine exercise for the business man. As a liver powder nothing can excel a stiff gallop on a sharp day.

There are hounds enough about St. Louis to make a good pack. Horses are plentiful also. All that is necessary is for some one to take the initiative, form a club and get to riding. It should be done at once.

MARKET RECORD

TRADING IS QUIET; PRICES ARE STEADY

Selling of Yesterday Was Conspicuously Absent Today and After an Early Decline Prices Close Showing Little if Any Change.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The opening on Wall Street today was active and regular, with small gains and losses about equally distributed throughout the day. The market was bearish and the traders favoring a reaction. London's range on Americans was quiet and water below parity. The Bank of England's rate of discount remains unchanged at a 4 percent and the fortnightly settlement is proceeding satisfactorily.

Settlement generally is less optimistic than yesterday, following the speech of Mr. Vanderbilt before the Senate committee on the Washington. The comments of the local press on this account are more conservative.

The Early News.
There is much comment this morning on Mr. Vanderbilt's speech yesterday, but the opinion most worth having is that his note of warning represents more than the natural conservatism of the man behind the bar. The utterances of the money market and the speculative gambling fever, which pervades certain sections of the financial district, are the same as those held by every conservative broker and trader. There was no hidden meaning in it, nor does it put off indefinitely the expected reaction. The money market most readily adjust itself to this adjustment and while the pessimistic activity of speculators may possibly interfere with normal conditions in the market, the reaction is not likely to be a serious one. The London settlement later developed the embargement of very small volume on the Stock Exchange, which has been arranged. The account was a bull one on Wall Street.

Market's Position.
That the long account is fairly well extended in the market at the present time was conspicuously demonstrated yesterday, when the offering of stocks in the last hour dropped prices 2 and 3 points or very limited selling. The artificial character of the bull market was also shown up and from the action of the market it was evident that the result of heavy trading orders in many of the leading stocks and industries.

DELANO CHOSEN THIRTEENTH ON WABASH BOARD

Man Who Succeeded Ramsey in Management of System to Be President.

GOULD WELL PLEASED

Financier Expresses Pleasure at Signal Defeat of Former Official.

LAWSUITS ARE LIKELY

Defeated Ex-President Says He Has Not Reached End of Matter.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
TOLEDO, O., Oct. 12.—Mr. George J. Gould when asked by the Post-Dispatch his opinion of the result of the Wabash election, said:

"I cannot but be extremely pleased. I regard it an emphatic endorsement of our management of the Wabash and I am personally very much gratified at the result. The figures are most significant, for it will be noticed that at the stockholders' meeting Mr. Ramsey received only 6.29 per cent of the votes." Mr. Ramsey appeared very much dejected at his overwhelming defeat, but declined to discuss the situation or his future plans. A prolonged lawsuit is entirely possible.

That was the way matters stood this morning after the prolonged and bitter fight between George Gould, head of the Wabash railroad system, and Joseph Ramsey, Jr., recently deposed from the presidency of the system and who tried to oust Gould from control and re-elect himself to his old position, only to be signally defeated.

Ramsey Makes Statement.

Not only was Ramsey utterly defeated in all he undertook but he was forced from the directory of the road, and now has nothing whatever to do with its management in any manner.

He put up a hard fight and struggled gamely to the last, but was so hopelessly in the minority that he never had a chance. He filed protests all through the meeting, not with the reason, as he afterwards declared, of being an obstructionist, but because he desired to lay the foundation for any contest that might hereafter be made. He took his defeat in a philosophical and manly manner, saying:

"I think that, with fairer treatment in the caucuses, I might have made a much better showing than I did. In fact, I made a better showing than the returns credit me with. There were several large blocks of stocks and bonds that should have been voted for me, but were given to Mr. Gould by the election inspectors. I believe that any court in the land would declare that these votes are properly mine."

"I have filed protests in all of these cases, not because I desired to be an obstructionist, but I desired to prepare for anything that might come hereafter. I have not determined whether or not to commence a contest, but nothing of that kind will be attempted by me immediately. I am not the kind of a man to employ destructive or obstructive tactics wantonly."

"I will say, however, that the meeting that has just closed is not the end of this affair by a good deal, but I cannot say just now what the next step will be."
